This form is to inform you that whenever you import goods from us into Canada there may be customs, taxes, or additional fees associated with your purchase. We have no control over these fees and do not include these fees in the amount of your purchase or in the shipping costs. These fees are assessed by the Canadian government at the time of the clearing of the goods.

We offer, as a standard, UPS Ground shipping; however, if it is more convenient for you there is also the option of USPS. USPS shipping must be requested at the time of the order. For more information on how customs and/or fees will be calculated on your items you can review information posted at www.ups.com or your www.usps.com. If you choose UPS shipping, you can elect to have a third party broker, one of choosing to broker your imported goods. This must be stated at the time of the order. If you do not state this then UPS will use its broker and will assess the fees they deem appropriate.

Regardless of the amount of the fees that may be assessed when the merchandise has cleared customs, we will in no way be responsible. If an order is refused after attempts have been made to collect the customs fees and deliver the merchandise, you will have to cover the costs of the initial shipping, the return shipping, and/ or any customs fees incurred as a result of the clearing of customs. You understand and agree that it will be your responsibility to cover these costs and if the merchandise is returned a credit will be issued less all shipping charges, customs, or any other fees that are incurred. There may also be a restocking fee assessed up to 20% of the purchase price of the merchandise.

This form will be kept on file for this and future orders, unless you provide in writing or via email a statement requesting we remove it from our records.
